

Item Reduction Studies

“Sorting out” processes whereby items currently in the supply system that are to be retained for stock are separated from items not to be acquired for continued supply.