ETID will also provide the required DEMIL certification for the property. In addition, it will print a completed DD 1348-1A, shipping paper, required DEMIL certifications, and bar code labels on the DD 1348-1A.

Training is available here: <http://www.dispositionservices.dla.mil/Documents/Property%20Accounting%20-%20J-322/ETID%20Overview.docx>

<http://www.dispositionservices.dla.mil/turn-in/scrap/Pages/drmo-delivery-or-receipt-in-place-scrap.aspx>

Environmental

Disposition Services sites manage the disposal of hazardous property for DOD activities. Hazardous property is handled according to the same priorities as other property: reutilization within DOD, transfer to other federal agencies, donations to qualified state and nonprofit organizations, and sale to the public including recyclers. This process maximizes the use of each item and minimizes the environmental risks and the costs associated with disposal.

<http://www.dispositionservices.dla.mil/newenv/Pages/default.aspx>

Scrap

Note: This does not include hazardous property, used oil or lead-acid batteries.

Scrap property is material that has no value except for its basic material content.

Scrap segregation at the generator's location is mandatory to keep the cost of handling scrap property to a minimum, and to enhance the value of the scrap. The DLA Disposition Services site is available to furnish scrap segregation guidance.

If scrap proceeds are to be deposited to a Qualified Recycling Program (QRP) account, the account number must be annotated on the turn-in document.

The turn-in document (DD Form 1348-1A) for scrap will include:

- The basic material content
- Estimated weight
- Reimbursement data, if applicable
- Precious metals indicator code, if applicable
- Demilitarization (DEMIL) Code

Munitions List Item (MLI) requiring DEMIL may not be turned in as scrap.

Reutilization, Transfer, & Donation

DLA Disposition Services offers excess and surplus property for reuse within DOD, Federal Agencies, and State and Local Governments and other eligible donees. Excess DOD property is first offered up for reuse within DOD, it is then reported to the General Services Administration (GSA) for screening and allocation to Federal, State and Local entities. RTD screening and ordering is primarily done on-line. DLA Disposition Services pays for transportation for DOD customers.

<http://www.dispositionservices.dla.mil/rtd03/Pages/index.aspx>

Resource Recovery Recycling Program Information

Offers excess and surplus property for reuse within the government and for sale to the Disposition Services sales partner, Government Liquidation, after screening. It includes almost all Federal Supply Classes (FSCs), such as: electrical and electronic hardware, industrial parts and supplies, aircraft parts, clothing and textiles, construction materials and much more.

DEMIL C, D and E items are generally acceptable for turn-in to your local DLA Disposition Services Field Site.

<https://tulsa.tacom.army.mil/demil/codefmain.cfm> (.MIL Only)

DEMIL G items- Contact the Local Disposition Services site for guidance. Any DEMIL G items deemed acceptable for turn in will require "Material Documented as Safe" (MDAS) certification.
